1. Purpose

The Receiving Party may have access to confidential information, data, software, or systems (the "Work") in the course of undertaking a student project. This Agreement ensures the confidentiality and protection of such information and sets out the obligations regarding intellectual property and publication.

2. Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" includes:

- All non-public information regarding the Work, including software, systems, documentation, business processes, or client data.
- Any data or materials labelled as confidential, or reasonably understood to be confidential.

The Receiving Party agrees to:

- Use Confidential Information only for the purpose of the project.
- Keep it strictly confidential and not disclose it to anyone outside the project team without written permission.
- Follow data protection laws (e.g., GDPR) if handling personal data.
- Return or securely delete all Confidential Information after the project ends or upon request.

3. Intellectual Property

- Any IP created by students during the project ("Foreground IP") is owned by Client.
- Students waive moral rights (e.g., to be identified as author) in Foreground IP in favour of the Client.
- Students may not use Foreground IP outside the project without prior written consent.

4. Publication and Communication

- Any drafts of reports, papers, or presentations relating to the Work must be submitted to the Client for review before release.
- Client may request:
  - Modifications or deletions to protect IP or confidential information
  - Delay of publication up to [e.g., 18 months] for IP protection

5. Duration

- Confidentiality obligations continue indefinitely unless formally released in writing.

6. Legal

- This Agreement is governed by the laws of [Jurisdiction, e.g., England & Wales].
- Breach may result in disciplinary action and/or legal consequences.
